PATTERSON OUT; SUCCESSOR WILL BE SCRUTINIZED

Litt'e Likelihood that Independent Will be Tricked by Machine Politicians.

Republicans Are to Consult President Taft.

MUST HAVE GOOD CANDIDATE.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 12.—(Special)—Governor Patterson last night announced his retirement from the race for governor. This leaves the field open for a new Democratic deal, but has so far done little to relieve the situation of any of its complications. The Independent, who were aided by the Republicans' not putting out a ticket for supreme judges, tacitly agreed to support the Republican candidate for governor and it is not likely that they will join the Patterson crowd in naming a candidate on the regular Democratic ticket.

It is practically certain the machine politicians, who forced Patterson to resign, had everything fixed to name his successor, to be a man equally satisfactory to them, before a calling on him to retire from the race, and anybody they put out will be carefully scrutinized by the independents.

Ready for Convention.

The Ryman Auditorium has been secured for the Republican state convention Tuesday. It was the original intention to have the sessions of the convention in the hall of the house of representatives at the capitol, but workmen are in charge there, making certain improvements, and this makes it impossible to occupy this hall just now for public purposes. The convention will be called to order at 11 next Tuesday morning, than in the Ryman Auditorium.

Nothing more definite has yet become known as to who will be choice for gubernatorial candidate. The Republican leaders, who are in Nashville today, reiterate the statement previously made by them, that there is no probability of any contest in the convention over the nomination. Conferences among the leaders continue to be the order of the day and it seems as assured that a decision in the matter will be reached certainly certainly by Monday the day before the convention meets. The leaders are reticent, however, and are not disposed to give any forecasts concerning who will be the choice of the convention.

The Possibilities.

The story has appeared that the nomination is most likely to go to Hon. Foster V. Brown of Chattanooga, who is now the legal representative of the United States government in Porto Rico. It has been further stated that Mr. Brown has endorsement of the administration at Washington. However this may be, there is evidently strong opposition to Mr. Brown in the ranks of his own party, some of the leaders being outspoken against his candidacy.

While there are many Republicans who have not entirely agreed with Judge G. McFadden in all his party alignments, it appears that he would develop great strength were his name presented to the convention.

Hon. R. S. Sharpe, now chief postoffice inspector, has a strong following, and the same is true of Hon. Jas. Fowler of Knoxville, and of Hon. Newell Sanders of Chattanooga.

There is no discounting the strength of Hon. John W. Overall, now United States marshal in this district. The fact is Mr. Overall has great strength for he has by far the largest instructed vote. The total vote in the convention will be 588, necessary to a choice, 294. Mr. Overall now has 171 instructed votes, and his friends claim he has 90 more at command, making a total of 261. Mr. Fowler has some 60 instructed votes, and his friends rely upon his ability to secure 90 more on the first ballot, a total of 150. Hon. Asbury Wright of Rockwood has a number of instructed votes also. The instructed strength of Mr. Overall makes it appear that he may hold the key to the situation. It is known, however, that he would not stand in the way of entire harmony in the convention, and this seems to be the attitude of all the others whose names have been mentioned in connection with the nomination.

Conference At Beverly.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 12.—The forthcoming conference at Beverly between President Taft, Representative Austin, Judge George McFadden, Newell Sanders and Lee Brack of Tennessee is expected to determine the direction of the national administration's sympathies and co-operation in the selection of

SLOW PROGRESS.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Judge Kersten threatens to hold late night sessions, if the attorneys in the Lee O'Neal Brown case do not make more progress, as after a week of empaneling, but four jurors have been accepted and three venire of one hundred men each have been exhausted. A new venire will be drawn Monday.

a Republican candidate for governor. It is believed and predicted here that the president will give his endorsement to Foster V. Brown, for whose nomination a majority of the public leaders of Tennessee now are at work. While Postmaster General Hitchcock and Postoffice Inspector Sharp are active for the nomination of Newell Sanders, the president is credited with enough political sagacity to appreciate the expediency—may necessity—of the nomination of men who would be acceptable to the anti-Patterson Democrats and that man is not Newell Sanders. The prediction is freely made here that if the Republican convention nominates Sanders he will go into the gubernatorial race without the prospect of support outside the old Evans-Sanders faction, for it is certain that the anti-Patterson element in the Democratic party would not rally to him, and thousands of Brownlow Republicans would go fishing on election day. A leading Tennessee Republican stated here that he would not vote for Sanders under any circumstances.

Representative Austin is in New York after a visit to Albany, where he invited Governor Hughes to Knoxville to attend the Appalachian Exposition.

Foster Brown, attorney general of Porto Rico, is expected to arrive in New York tomorrow en route for Tennessee to attend the Republican state convention at Nashville next Tuesday.

WHEEL RUNS OVER HEAD OF YOUTH

HERMAN SURETTE FALLS FROM MILK WAGON AND IS SERIOUSLY HURT.

Tossed from a dairy wagon when the horse lunged, little Herman Surette, the two-year-old son of E. S. Surette, a dairyman, had a narrow escape from a horrible death this morning on Broad street. The little fellow was thrown from the seat of the wagon to the street, and one wheel passed over his head. The lad was rendered unconscious, and a severe concussion of the brain was produced. A gash was cut over his left eye, which required several stitches to close it. Surette resides in Tyler and was returning to his home when the accident happened. Dr. W. H. Parsons dressed the injuries of the boy, who is expected to recover.

Mayor Gaynor Will Probably Recover

Hoboken, Aug. 12.—Satisfaction is felt by Mayor Gaynor's physicians that they deferred an operation, as second set of X-ray photographs show the bullet to have lodged in the vault of the pharynx back of nose. The doctors say that it can easily be removed should an operation be deemed necessary. A bulletin issued this morning said, "The mayor passed a good night. He slept seven hours and is comfortable and in excellent general condition. His temperature is 100; pulse 70, respiration 16." Mayor Gaynor ate a hearty breakfast.

A bulletin issued from the hospital this afternoon says "The mayor has passed a comfortable morning. He has taken nourishment well and is steadily improving." He went to sleep at 10 this morning and will be still sleeping at 1:30. Rufus, his son, Turned the Tide for Lincoln.

New York, Aug. 12.—The death today at Mount Vernon of John B. Allen marked the passing of one of the noted political characters of his day. He played an unusual part in the nomination of Abraham Lincoln for president, in breaking away from the New York delegation, casting a single vote for Lincoln and turning the tide toward the man later to be assassinated.

The Plain City lodge of Masons held services at the grave.

SLY ALDRICH.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 12.—Senator Aldrich aboard his steam yacht, the O-Wa-Ra, slipped into Beverly early today, disturbing the presidential breakfast, talking politics with President Taft for 35 minutes. Later he eluded the newspaper men by speeding out of the harbor before they could see him. The president has arranged to see Secretary of the Treasury McVeigh and Postmaster General Hitchcock today.

Gus Rogers, former deputy sheriff, was in the city today on business and was kept busy shaking hands with friends. ASSOCIATION TO HAVE MORE ACRES IN THIS COUNTRY

Reports Indicate That it Will Be Practically Doubled

Paris of Caldwell and Adjoining Counties.

PLANTERS' OFFICERS MEET.

Nearly twice the total tobacco acreage of McCracken county that was pledged to the Planters' Protective association last year has been pledged so far this year by growers of this county. A thorough canvass of the county is now being made and the officers of the districts are working hard to get 50 per cent of the acreage by August 15, when the books of the association close.

Chairman John McKeage, of this county, returned this morning from Guthrie, where he attended a meeting of the board of directors of the association. The results of the meeting yesterday were the annexation of parts of Caldwell and Lyon counties to the association's acreage. Caldwell county dropped out some time ago and almost half of the county which raises export tobacco has returned. Business matters occupied the attention of the directors and according to Mr. McKeage prospects are bright for a bumper crop for the association this year. All of the counties in this section of the state are being canvassed and decidedly larger acreage is predicted for the 1910 crop than was pledged for the 1909 crop.

McCracken county's 1909 pledged acreage amounted to a little over 600 acres and from the present indications as shown by the work of the canvassers the 1910 acreage will be more than triple this amount, it is believed. The association is very enthusiastic over the results of this year and expects a big business during 1911.

Mr. McKeage will return to his home at Florence station this evening. He visited the local headquarters this morning.

Captain Henry Baker, local manager of transportation and the floating equipment of the Ayer & Lord Tie company, has returned from the headquarters of the company in Chicago, where he presented the matter of building a set of dry docks at Paducah before President J. B. Lord. As a result of the conference Mr. Lord has ordered bids for the lumber, which will amount to approximately 200,000 feet. Lumber from Washington will be used in the construction of the docks, if it is finally decided to build them. Captain Baker has been anxious for the docks many years and believes there will be a realization of his hopes in the near future.

McCracken County Teachers in Concluding Session of Institute at Court House This Afternoon

PROF. C. W. RICHARDS, OF PRINCETON,
Who Was Instructor at the McCracken County Teachers' Institute, Which Closed a Successful Session Today.

Strictly a business session marked the close of the annual meeting of the McCracken County Teachers' institute, which has been in session for five days. This afternoon was devoted to the transaction of business and the passing of resolutions. Among the resolutions passed was the recommendation that agriculture be taught in the rural schools. It was recognized that it is one of the best studies to strengthen the county schools and to make them beneficial to the rural children. Resolutions were adopted thanking Prof. W. C. Richards, of Princeton, who was the able instructor of the institute, and Prof. L. W. Feezor, county school superintendent, for their hard work for the success of the institute; the daily press for the publicity given the institute, and the county officials for the courtesies extended the teachers.

The fifth and last day of the institute opened with an unusually strong program. The opening exercises were under the direction of Charles Ferguson, and the teachers sang the "Star Spangled Banner." Prof. C. W. Richards gave an instructive talk on "Teachers' Relations to Organizations." He said that the teachers should be progressive and should keep in touch with the latest improvements and suggestions in educational work. Mr. Morris, a representative of the American Book company, delivered a short address on the responsibility of the work of the teacher.

One of the best addresses delivered during the institute came this morning when Judge William Marble spoke on "Occupation of a Teacher." He said that the responsibility of the occupation of a teacher is great. He advised the holding before the pupils always of the necessity of law and order in the school, as an incentive to be future good citizenship. When possible he advocated strongly that the pupils should attend high school.

County Judge Alben Barkley addressed the teachers and made some appropriate remarks. He said he recognized that the teacher's work as that of a self-sacrificing profession, but emphasized the importance of the teacher to the children, and the effect

MAYOR'S POWER TO REVOKE LICENSE TO BE QUESTIONED

M. L. Rickman Sues City and Mayor to Test Constitutionality.

His Saloon Privilege Has Been Forfeited.

BARTENDER SOLD TO MINOR.

Suit to test the validity of the city ordinance, granting the mayor power to revoke city liquor licenses upon proof that the city ordinances have been violated, suit has been filed in the McCracken circuit court by M. L. Rickman against the city of Paducah and Mayor James P. Smith. Rickman alleges that the section of the ordinance, conferring the authority upon the mayor is unconstitutional, and seeks to have a writ of prohibition issued, and a permanent injunction against the enforcement of that section of the ordinance.

Rickman was proprietor of a saloon at Eighth and Humboldt streets, and July 1 was granted a retail liquor license. August 1 Rickman's clerk was fined in police court for selling to minors, and he appealed the case to the circuit court.

Upon the conviction in police court of the clerk, Mayor Smith promptly revoked Rickman's city license.

Rickman alleges that he was not given 24 hours' notice of the action by the mayor. The ordinance alleged to be unconstitutional is that the mayor may revoke the license of any city saloonkeeper upon the affidavit of a citizen, stating that the law has been violated. The mayor issues notice to the saloonkeeper and after 24 hours a trial is held, and the mayor acts according to the evidence. The chief claim of the plaintiff is that the mayor can not be granted the judicial power. Rickman is represented by Attorneys Oliver & Oliver, and Reed & Reed.

Suits Filed in Circuit Court.

Garner Brothers Furniture company filed suit against J. A. Tilley for $229.55 alleged to be due on an account for goods purchased August 5.

Hiram Smedley filed suit against John Harris for $100 alleged due on a promissory note. It is alleged that interest from November 1, -908, is due.

Robert Y. Allgood filed suit against the Thompson Transfer company for $400 for alleged damages. Allgood alleges that on July 2 he was driving near Third street and Kentucky avenue when, through carelessness on the part of the driver of a wagon for the transfer company that a collision resulted and seeks damages.

Leo Ratliff filed suit for divorce from Willie Ratliff. The couple married April 13, 1907, and separated June, 1909. Besides the divorce she asks the court to award her the custody of the two children, Olympia and Thelma and for $25 a month maintenance for the children. Alimony in the sum of $250 is asked.

A large kettle of coal tar that was being heated caught fire this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock back of the H. A. Pether Supply company, 117 South First street. Hose company, No. 1, and truck companies, Nos. 1 and 4, answered the alarm.

Vincennes, Ind., Aug. 12.—By a shut-out score Vincennes defeated Paducah yesterday afternoon, the final result being 3 to 0. It was a pitchers' battle between Gosnell and "Rube" Floyd, and the hits were kept low, but errors by the Indians permitted the Allice to trot home with the victory. It was a brilliant game. Cox and Anderson, for the Indians, put up a brilliant fielding game. Sammy Dehaven hit like a house afire, and his swatting enabled the locals to win.

The game started off in the first inning with Dehaven tripling, and he scored when Floyd made a wild pitch. All went well and the Vincennes fans enjoyed the lead until the seventh inning, when their joy was even better. Jones went out Anderson to Cox, and Johnson went to second. Roy Johnson knocked a high one to Chief Angermeyer, who let it get away. Hurst, who has recovered from his injuries, singled and both Johnsons scored.

Try as hard as they might the Indians were absolutely unable to score. Not one of the tribe reached third base while second base was explored by only three red faces. Gosnell was in fine fettle, and held the Paducahans down to three measly hits. Floyd permitted four, but they were bunched and coupled with costly errors.

Stop 'Em
Harrisburg, Ill., Aug. 12.—The two recruits to the Kitty league met yesterday afternoon, and McLeansboro was the victor of the fray by the overwhelming score of 12 to 3. Beck was in grand form, and allowed the Harrisburg batters only five hits. Mortenson was hit freely by McLeansboro. The game was over at 4:30 o'clock and was one of the swiftest ever played on the local lot.

Clarksville Rallies.
Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 12.—Clarksville took the first game of the series yesterday afternoon by the big score of 9 to 2. It was an easy victory, as Clarksville batters went right after Little Yon, the southpaw, and straightened out 12 of his fancy shoots. On the other hand, Harris, the former Indian, was in grand form and permitted only six hits. He had Hopkinsville at his mercy all of the way.

Clarksville 9 12 3
Hopkinsville 2 6 5
Batteries: Clarksville, Harris and Strube; Hopkinsville, Yon and Blue.

Baseball Chaff.
Goldnamer has left Hopkinsville, as he refused to sign a contract. Goldnamer was reputed as the fastest outfielder in the league, but his work last Sunday was anything but in that class. In addition to letting in a score by dropping a fly, he was caught napping on the bases when Hoptown threatened to score.

Cy Lambert, who was released by Clarksville, has signed with Hopkinsville as an outfielder and pitcher. Lambert is a heavy hitter and led the league the first part of the season. McLeansboro is a town that does not permit Sunday baseball, and by reason of this fact the game between Vincennes and McLeansboro scheduled for next Sunday has been transferred to Vincennes. The Kitty has Hopkinsville, Clarksville and McLeansboro where Sunday games can not be played.

Hopkinsville newspaper men say that the McLeansboro team has more horse shoes than any team they ever saw. The same looked to be true when McLeansboro was here and the writer is still of the opinion the team is playing ahead of its class. How-

News of Theatres

One of the best acts ever seen at the Star the work of Tom Kerr on the violin. His imitations brought down the house, and, besides, he can play the instrument like a master. His imitation of the church choir was excellent. Miss Isabel Howell is a good singer, and her act pleased two large audiences last night. Frank Long has a new illustrated song and is as big a favorite as ever. The motion pictures complete the unusually strong bill.

A novel, amusing and entertaining act to be seen at the Star this week is "Chinese Johnny" Williams in his Chinese burlesque stunts. "Chinese Johnny" is accompanied with, and helped out by, "Foolish," the most sensible English bull terrier to be found in the world. After witnessing the almost human acts of "Foolish," one wonders why a more appropriate name was not given the little white bull dog.

Williams has been a vaudeville actor for a number of years, going into the business when a child. Many and varied are the vicissitudes of life which he has had to buck up against but he has always come out "on top."

SKIN AND SCALP TROUBLES

YIELD TO ZEMO.

A clean liquid preparation for external use. W. J. Gilbert's drug store is so confident that ZEMO will rid the skin and scalp of infant or grown person of pimples, black heads, dandruff, eczema, prickly heat, rashes, hives, ivy poison or any other form of skin or scalp eruption, that they will give you money back if you are not entirely satisfied with the results obtained from the use of ZEMO.

The first application will give prompt relief and show an improvement and in every instance where used persistently, will destroy the germ life, leaving the skin in a clean, healthy condition.

URGING HADLEY

BELIEVED PRESIDENT WILL HAVE HIS WAY.

Two Men Discuss the Commission Chairmanship in Tennessee—See Hope.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 12.—President Taft and President Hadley, of Yale, were in conference again in regard to the personnel of the commission which is to be appointed to inquire into the proposed regulation of the issues of stocks and bonds by railroads.

While Mr. Hadley has not yet definitely accepted the tendered position of chairman of the commission, he is giving the president all the assistance he can in formulating a plan of work, and it is believed that eventually he will take the chairmanship. Mr. Taft is strongly urging the matter upon him.

An effort is being made to have the commission represent all phases of the work. The so-called progressive sentiment of the Republican party is to be represented.

President Taft and his political advisers believe that the Republican party has a good opportunity to carry Tennessee this fall and thus make a break in the "solid south"—one of the president's ambitions. With this end in view, Mr. Taft has invited a number of his party leaders in Tennessee to Beverly in order to see if the Republicans cannot adjust their differences of the past and go into the coming campaign in harmony. The Tennesseans are coming to lunch with the president. Among them will be Representative Austin, Lee Brock, Newell Sanders and Judge G. M. Henderson.

The Republican hope as viewed from Beverly is based on the split in the Democratic party and the recent overwhelming victory of the independent judicial ticket, which won by from 45,000 to 50,000 majority. In addition to a governor there is to be elected this fall a legislature which will name a successor to Senator Frazier.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Aug. 12.—The receipts of sheep and lambs were 3,331 head, for the four days this week 19,204 head. There was a good call for prime to fancy sheep and lambs with prices 25c higher, the best lambs selling at 6 1/4 @ 6 3/4 c; seconds, 5 @ 5 1/2 c; culs 3 @ 4 1/4 c; fat sheep, very dull. Good demand for prime to fancy stock ewes, Westerns, 5 @ 5 1/2 c; good to choice native, 4 @ 5 c; common and plain ewes, very dull.
Hogs.
Receipts, 834 head, for the four days this week, 3,189. The market ruled steady all down the line; good heavy hogs, 200 lbs. and up, $8.60; mediums, 165 to 200 lbs., $8.90; light pigs, $8 @ 9; roughs, $7.85 down. The pens were well cleared and the market closed about steady.

Cattle.
The receipts of cattle today were 125 head, for the four days this week 1,640. The attendance of buyers was light, limited to a small crowd of local traders and butchers, who had bought about all the cattle they needed earlier in the week, consequently there was hardly any demand at all. The trade very dull and draggy with prices unevenly lower. Choice handy butcher cattle sold more readily than any other class, and they were 10 @ 15c lower; the medium to good and real common kinds were hard to sell at as much as 15 @ 25c off, as compared with the best time Monday. The feeder and stocker market was just about steady; good demand for the best, common kinds a little slow. Bulls, slow; canners, dull and lower; milch cows, slow. No heavy cattle here; feeling easy to lower. The pens were only fairly well cleared and the market closed very dull.

Calves.

Receipts, 91, head, for the four days this week 624. The market ruled steady; bulk of the best, 7 @ 7 1/4 c; some fancy light veals, shade higher; medium, 6 @ 7c, common, 2 1/2 @ 6c.

St. Louis.—Cattle—Receipts 5,500; market steady. Native beef steers, $5.75 @ 8.00; calves in carload lots, $6.00 @ 8.50. Hogs—Receipts 6,500; market 5c to 10c lower. Pigs and lights, $8.00 @ 9.10; packers, $7.50 @ 8.75; butchers and best heavy, $8.10 @ 8.80. Sheep muttons, $3.75 @ 4.00; lambs, $5.50 @ 6.50.

GIRL TRAPS ALLEGED THIEF Abandoned, She Put Police on Marcher's Track.

New York, Aug. 11.—Word was received yesterday from the police of Christiania, Norway, that they had arrested Leon H. Marcher, former bookkeeper for the Morse Iron Works, at the foot of Fifty-sixth street, Brooklyn, who absconded on April 16 with $5,000 belonging to the firm and who took with him a young woman employed in a house near the iron works.

The arrest was brought about by the young woman, who Marcher had deserted in London. Marcher had lived with his wife and two children at Tenth avenue and Eighty-second street, Dyker Heights. He was regarded as a model husband and father, and in the iron works he was fully trusted. April 16 the cashier of the company drew $5,000 to pay the men and placed it in the office safe, but did not lock the door. When Marcher left at noon he took the money from the safe, it is alleged, placed it in a dress suit case and walked to Fourth avenue and Forty-sixth street, where the young woman was waiting in a taxicab. Marcher had taken from his home almost everything of value. The police got on trace of the fugitive until the young woman returned to Brooklyn and notified Captain Thor of the Fourth avenue station of her ill-treatment by her former companion and of his plan to go to Christiania.

Since Marcher's flight his family, who were saved from want by neighbors, have moved away, and the police do not know where they are. The police refuse to give the name of the young woman who brought about Marcher's arrest. He will be brought here for trial.

SERVICE FOR NIGHT WORKERS.

The Rev. Von Herrlich Will Speak on "Sowing and Reaping."

New York, Aug. 11.—At the regular Sunday morning service at 2:30 at St. Paul's Episcopal chapel, Vesey street and Broadway, the Rev. Von Herrlich will take as his text "Sowing and Reaping." Last week's sermon was especially interesting. "Opportunities" being the theme eloquently discoursed upon.

Last Sunday morning singers were asked for to help inaugurate the volunteer choir, the clergyman explaining that at present quantity was not needed more than quality. With a choir taken from the ranks of the nightworkers the services will surely be more interesting to all concerned. Among those who attend these services are newspaper men, postoffice employees and many others whose calling compels them to be out in the "wee sma' hours." The service lasts only forty-five minutes. All are cordially invited.

Fifty-six per cent of the students at Dartmouth College wear glasses.

Daily Thought.

What the heart knows the mind
may as well accept.

Who will be the Madriz of Zelaya
Patterson in Tennessee?

It is a good thing the state of Oklahoma has such a strong constitution. She may recover from her political purification.

The Benton Tribune announces that it is on the northeast corner of the square. The Tribune-Democrat always was on the square.

A Cadiz, O., gardener keeps snakes
in his potato patch to kill the bugs.
He does not dig his potatoes until the frost kills the snakes.

New York police have statement of a man named Perlmutter that there was a conspiracy to kill Mayor Gaynor. Abe Potash could probably tell them something about that.

A great many able editorialists have been written on the subject of why Ballinger should resign; but one really clever suggestion on how to resign, perhaps, would come nearer meeting the needs of the gentleman in question.

A Massachusetts preacher, who is a baseball fan, says he verily believes they will play baseball in heaven. If some one should knock the ball out of the lot and one of us should pick it up, we wonder if they would let a fellow in.

FIRST AID TO THE INJURED.

Extremes of everything carry with them their own punishments, and a fashion note in relation to the new "hobble skirt", at first glance an apparent concession to feminine vanity, turns out to be in the nature of first aid to the injured. The note reads:
"Hosiery is so much in evidence with the short hobble skirt now in vogue that women of fashion are paying much attention to it. The fine plain stockings are mostly black ones, for black is gaining a new ascendency. Ladder stripes, lozenges, the Vandyke pattern and tiny spots with open work between are patterns that look well in wear and that add distinction to a pair of neat shoes and a short skirt. Girls who approve of startling contrasts are taking a pleasure in the new black stockings embroidered in chateaucer shades of red."

The practical application of the suggestion becomes obvious only in connection with a news item about a young lady of Shuttlesworth, N. Y., who tripped on her "hobble skirt"
and broke her leg.

PADUCAH AS A TOBACCO CEN-TER.

Paducah as the market center of the dark tobacco district is not a far away dream; it is approaching an actuality. Within three years the tobacco business of this city has nearly doubled, and it is probable that even in the halcyon days, when the river packets handled the bulk of the shipping out of the tobacco districts, and Paducah was the natural distributing point, there was little more tobacco handled here than now. There probably was not so much raised.
With the coming of railroads, of

HENDRICK HIS BEST BET

Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah and Smithland, is being urged to enter the race for governor.

Regarding this contest we feel like the old lady at Frankfort, who said: "Yes, I'm goin' to the opory tonight but I don't allow to take no part." However, that does not deter us from expressing our sentiments toward the cast of the show.

McCreary, Johnson, Head and whatshname have announced; all great and good men, but all involved in certain entangling alliances that presage danger to a Democratic nominee. Mr. Hendrick would not be handicapped by things that the other candidates will have to carry if nominated.

The fact that McCreary's boom originated in the camp of the Beck-hamites, who hate him worse than pizen, will hurt him no little. There will be inquiries as to the why and the wherefore and what went on and what is goin' to go on behind the scenes.

Mr. Johnson is a very able man. He would make a fine governor. The Beckham contingent hates Johnson, too. When the Johnsons and the Beckhams come to this country they took different routes, and have been going there ever since, which is not to the discredit of Johnson. But that is another story.

And Beckham has told a certain Kentucky senator, and perhaps others that he will not support Johnson if he is nominated. Whether this would help or hurt Johnson is a question. Beckham's paper is not supporting Cantrill, nominee for congress, yet we have a wireless bulletin that Cantrill sleeps well and eats three times a day.

Then Mr. Head is accused of being the Whallen candidate. Probably he is—and if so a factor to be reckoned with; John Whallen has knocked a few home runs lately. He seems to have "come back." Mayor Head is an old tobacco man and has a wide acquaintance over the state.

course, there was a new deal, for other players had entered the game, and for a time Paducah's glory as a tobacco center gradually waned, while she lost her cotton trade entirely.

Now the trade seems to be coming back and in the time mentioned no less than a half dozen exporters have opened new warehouses here, a new steamship line has been added, one loose leaf auction house has operated two years and contract is let for another, the second largest in the state and the largest in the Black Patch. The big exporting concern, which will build a factory on Kentucky avenue and employ a hundred hands, and the leasing of the Auditorium, rink for a warehouse indicate that this year will send the volume of business in Paducah millions of pounds beyond that of last year.

The new exporting house on Kentucky avenue will prepare five million pounds annually for the Italian market, and will distribute a half million dollars each year through the Paducah banks. The big auction houses will attract tobacco here by rail and river from the territory, which heretofore has been the exclusive possession of Hopkinsville and Clarksville, and will care for practically all the uncontracted tobacco in the Purchase and western district of Tennessee.

The Planters' Protective association also has made this the only grading point in Kentucky, and it has disposed of hundreds of hogsheads in this city, finding this the last year the readiest market in the two states. Thus, following a natural law, every pound of tobacco that finds its way to Paducah will draw after it another pound. The buyers are here, representing every old world market and the two big home consumers, the Smith & Scott Tobacco company and the American Snuff company; big auction houses are here, where the product can be exposed and sold for cash to competitive bidders; the exporters are here to work the loose leaf up into condition for shipment to Europe.
All the requirements are met here for a ready market at the highest price, and that is exactly what the farmers found here last year.

The banking facilities are also important in the tobacco trade, as most sales are cash. In this respect Paducah has a big advantage over any other community west of Louisville and north of Nashville. The advantages to the buyer and the grower are obviously what drew them here; but the advantages to Paducah for all these millions of pounds of tobacco is paid here in Paducah to the growers, who find their accommodations at the local banks, and running before the banks
a street lined with first class stores, where they can do their marketing before starting home. It is not to be questioned that appreciable quantities of this money, paid over at Paducah to the growers for their products, will immediately find its way into retail channels.

These county has its responsibility.
The roads already improved must be kept in first class condition, and the improvements must be extended.
Paducah has caught considerable trade from capitals of adjoining counties by reason of the better roads, and it is an advantage, which just at this time, we cannot afford to let go.

OUR RASH CONTEMPORARY.

Our rash contemporary should stay out of the Tennessee political situation until it equips itself with knowl-

We believe Mr. Hendrick would stand a better show to defeat the Republican nominee than any man mentioned. Anyhow, somebody like him ought to be governor of this state. He has the ability and experience; he knows the needs of the people and is in sympathy with everything that makes for the uplift and advancement of the commonwealth. He is warmhearted and honest; a typical Kentuckian, true to Kentucky. About the only thing that could be brought against this man is that it is hard for him to withstand the tears of a female, and the wife, daughter or mother of any convict in the penitentiary could go into the governor's office, with Hendrick as governor, and drop a few weeps on the executive table; he would blubber some with her, reach for his old bandana, his purse and the pardoning pen, and his tear-stained signature would release the poor fellow in about 30 seconds. He would go out of office, as he has always gone out of office, without a frazzling cent, but with the love and esteem of his countrymen.

It seems to us that John Hendrick is the logical candidate. He is a powerful campaigner and can un-hinge the knightliest exponent of Republicanism that ever bore a lance. He would have a better chance to win than any other man, and we presume that the Democrats would like to carry the state in the next election. If they do carry it somebody will have to be nominated who can fight to a finish. The coming gubernatorial race is not going to be a yearling stunt. We think our Republican friends will enter Ed O'Rear in this great derby. It will take a thoroughbred who doesn't carry an ounce of dead weight to beat him.

We have always been for John Hendrick for anything he wanted.
It is the dream of his life to be governor of Kentucky and we are not without hope that he will yet achieve that ambition.—Calloway Gazette.

edge of the subject. It unwinds a long editorial this morning, which, caption and all, bears a striking resemblance to something we have read elsewhere, about President Taft and the Republicans of Tennessee interfering with a Democratic primary on Thursday, August 4.

Now, as a matter of fact, that wasn't a Democratic primary at all.
It was a regular election, at which candidates nominated for positions on the supreme bench, when Ham Patterson was nominated for governor, were opposed by an independent ticket supported by Republicans. In view of the facts, the morning paper's screed become ridiculous.

It is true, we understand, that President Taft advised the Republicans of Tennessee not to nominate a judiciary ticket; but to let the issue of decency and a free bench be tried out between independents and Democrats without any complication, which could only have split the decent vote between the independents and the Republican candidates and insured
the election of the Democratic organization ticket. If the morning paper had any complaint against the Republicans for not nominating a ticket, well and good; but it should not abuse a Republican of Tennessee for exercising the sovereign right of a citizen of the United States to participate in a general election and vote for whomsoever he pleases.

We don't accuse our morning contemporary of attempting to deceive its readers into believing that was a Democratic primary. It was done through ignorance; but, as William Jennings Bryan would say, that is as bad as knavery sometimes.

Another Tradition Exploded.
Two Englishmen were resting at the "Red Horse Inn" at Stratford-on-Avon. One of them discovered a print picturing a low tumbling building underneath which was printed:
"The House in Which Shakespeare Was Born." Turning to his friend in mild surprise he pointed to the print. His friend exhibited equal surprise, and called a waiter who assured them of the accuracy of the inscription.

"Pon my word," said the observing Englishman, shaking his head dubiously, "I thought he was born in a manger!"—Success Magazine.

POSAM'S GREAT WORK

IN CURING ECZEMA.

Uniform Success in the Treatment of All Surface Skin Diseases.

The remarkable work which posam, the new skin remedy, is accomplishing in the eradication of eczema includes cases of many years' standing, the trouble having affected all parts of the body.

“For fifteen years I have had eczema on my head,” says Mr. E. C. Staton, Woodbridge, Va., “the scalp being nothing but blotches. I found that the first box of posam helped me, and now my scalp seems to be entirely cured, leaving it clear and perfectly white. I think it is the greatest remedy in the world for this disease.” All other skin diseases, including acne, tetter, shingles, barber's itch, piles, salt rheum, skin scale, etc., are relieved and cured by posam in like manner, itching being stopped at once. The less serious troubles, such as pimples, red and inflamed noses, fever blisters, sunburn, etc., respond so readily that results are seen after an overnight application.

VIRGINIA OF THE AIR

A Romance Of Flying
By HERBERT QUICK
Copyright, 1909, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER XI.

THE AERONEF VIRGINIA.

VIRGINIA, left alone, was rather glad of it. Her desertion of the Shaynes was a crisis in her life. She had acted impulsively in a matter of great moment and needed time for thought. She had taken flight to Carson's Landing and to shelter in the shade of the sole remaining branch of her family tree, full of confidence that she would find there a silver haired uncle and a delicate old lavender aunt, redolent of the old regime and ready to receive her tenderly loyal to the Carson blood.

Instead of silver hair, Theodore, the audaciously false uncle, had the "little, silky kid's mustache," and there was no aunt. The grandniece of old General Carson, related to Theodore Carson by no chain of descent save the dubious one of the original third Carson brother of hundreds of years ago and the ownership of this plantation, was weakly allowed to assume kinship from the place and name and never thought of sitting down with Theodore and tracing the thing out. She wondered just what the relationship was anyhow. Chloe said that Cabsonees were Cabsonees, and she never bothered about different kinds. He couldn't be a real uncle, Virginia felt sure of that. He might be a son of General Carson by a second wife. He was the head of the family anyhow. She must be satisfied with that.

Of his invention, save that it was in the mysterious shed, chosen because of its remoteness and its unobstructed beach, she really knew nothing. She began to wonder now whether he was a world's genius or only the crude product of a country college, with nothing to command a second glance except his sinewy erectness, the pathetic yearning in his eyes and the wonderful softness in his voice.

"Uncle Theodore," suggested Virginia to Mrs. Stott, "has invited us to visit him. And, do you know, I think we'll go back with the captain if you can overcome your aversion to the water."

"Will the bay be rough?" asked Mrs. Stott as if confident that the captain served out the weather.

"Dead calm, ma'am."

"Well go," said Mrs. Stott.

The ladies hurriedly packed their dunnage and embarked. They were a gay party. Virginia was full of laughter. Her color rose and her eyes dilated as they took the stream early enough to let them through the new canal into the lagoon by daylight.

"Do you see any signs of a storm?" asked Mrs. Stott, noting his upward glances.

"No, ma'am," he returned. "Ah was just tryin' to make out if Ah'd ever seen that craft befo' aloft thah."

The craft alluded to was a great silver Condor, gleaming in the sun.

Virginia studied her absordedly with her field glasses.

"I think," said Virginia, "that she's the Roc. I'm sure of it."

"Yes, ma'am," replied Harrod.

"She's lyin' to," said the captain.

"Thah goes huh lift down."

"Why," asked Virginia wonderingly, "what can she want over there in the woods?"

"She's jist about ove' yo' home, ma'am," said Harrod.

Virginia grew pale and, asking for the glass, scanned the great aerostat with the lowered lift, like a nexus, to the ground.

"Can't you go a little faster?" said she, laying down the binoculars.

"Aftah we clear Week's bay," said the captain.

Once clear of the channel, they stood for the south shore, the engines firing in continuous explosion. Suddenly with a little scream Virginia leaped out to look upward past the awning. In the water, instead of bird or sail or cloud, she had seen, coming up from the depths under their rail, the Roc, under full speed, her great engines shimmering, her giant hull a resplendent bubble of steel. Looking up, Virginia saw her overhead and covered back into the boat, for peering over the rail and calling like an evil bird was Silberberg.

"Shall Ah answer the hail, miss?" asked the captain.

"No!" whispered Virginia. "Take no notice, I beg of you, captain!"

The Roc swept on like a meteor, leaving the launch behind. Virginia asked the captain if he supposed she had been recognized.

"Ah reckon not, miss," said he. "Jist a chance meetin', Ah reckon. She's come to, right ove' the inn," said the captain.

Virginia sat under the middle of the awning, quite in a tremble. The boat slowly threaded the shelly entrance to the bayou and passed the wharf of the inn. The people on the quay were craning their necks at the descent of the passengers from the Roc.

"Hurry, captain, hurry!" urged Virginia.

"Ah can't, ma'am," said he. "Ah'll hev to lie to a minute for thah boat. Neve' fear, miss; yo' all right with me!"

"Here you see," said a voice from the wharf, "two soon to be discarded nodes of navigation—the boat displacing water and the aerostat floating in the air upheld by gas. The hydroplane must replace the boat; the aeronef, the aerostat. I have made a specialty of this. I know. The value of that clear shaped craft up there as junk, deducted from her present value, is the measure of Mr. Finley Shayne's loss when our big show opens its ticket wagon. Seest thou?"

Virginia looked attentively at the speaker, startled to hear her uncle's name mentioned almost in his presence. She saw a youngish man of medium height, thin habit of body and long, thick hair, who was gazing, with every appearance of interest, not at the aerostat, but at a lady of perhaps twenty-seven years, short, plump, admirably gowned in a sort of reduced half mourning, with her jolly little face turned toward the Roc, her brown hair tousled about her face, her prominent little chin carrying the facial angle forward and downward.

"That talk will do with me," said she, "but you've got to show papa something besides ornatory pretty soon or there'll be trouble. He tells me that you and Mr. Carson are the first ever to sell him a gold brick, and he proposes to make an example of you. You're supposed to be in custody now. Why, here's papa!"

Mr. Waddy came down the wharf, combing his whiskers and mustache out in front of his nose with his fingers. As Harrod's boat glided within arm's length of the wharf the lift descended from the alrship, filling Virginia with terror.

SWAMPS DELAY RAILROAD WORK

MAY PUT OFF OPENING OF HERRIN SOUTHERN.

Big Four and L. & N. Probably Will Connect Over River.

MASSAC COUNTY'S BRIDGES

Metropolis, Ill., Aug. 12.—Contractor Hewitt, of Creal Springs, arrived here on Sunday with his outfit for railroad work. He has rented the dwelling also tenting grounds of Phillip Foreman, Jr., on the Jonesboro road near town and gone to work, surfacing the track and preparing it for the ties. He will also do the yard and switch track work. Aside from surfacing, the road bed between here and Herrin is about completed. Some short pieces of trestle work or large culverts have yet to be put in which will delay the entrance of trains into Metropolis possibly a month longer than was anticipated; in fact work in the pond region has been a hard proposition, one which scarcely any living man could accurately forecast.

Big Four and L. & N.

Day and night shifts are at work on both sides of the Wabash river on the Evansville branch of the Big Four. The contractors are bending every energy toward completing the line before Christmas and it now seems that this will be done. At the latest, January 1, next, should see the line ready for the trains.

It is reported upon reliable authority that four fast trains will be run through to Chicago each day, the Big Four handling them from the L. & N. from Evansville. This will prove a big advantage to Mt. Carmel and will call for a substantial increase in the number of freight cars handled here.

The Big Four now owns 52 per cent of the L. & N. stock, hence the arrangement by means of which the two lines are to work hand in hand for the enormous trade from the southland, and from Chicago south.

When this line begins operations, the closing down of a few coal mines will not be such a disturbing element to our people.

The above clipping from the Mt. Carmel Register becomes interesting to our people since the fact has become public that the L. & N. railroad is one of the promoters of the Metropolis railroad bridge and that the Cairo and Thebes railroad is really a Louisville and Nashville property. This would indicate that the L. & N. and the Big Four railroads will probably connect in our country over the bridge.—Metropolis-Herald.

New County Bridges.

The county commissioners held a session last week to consider the matter of the erection of six concrete bridges in this county. Plans and specifications for these bridges were made by the engineering department of the state for the Illinois board of highways at Springfield and notices to contractors will be sent out at once for bids on them. One bridge 40 feet long on the Lake road between Unionville and Owen's landing.

One bridge 60 feet long across Massac Creek adjacent to the Johns and McKee farms east of Metropolis.

One bridge 40 feet long across upper Massac Creek near the Korte farm in Washington precinct.

One bridge 40 feet long across Massac Creek known as the Pansing bridge in Washington precinct.

One bridge 30 feet long across the Black Slough near Grinnell.

One bridge 20 feet long across the bayou between Joppa and Judge Oakes' farm.

The letting for these bridges will be held August 27th and actual work begins not later than September 27th—all of the work is expected to be complete not later than January 1st, 1914. All of these bridges will be 16 feet in width.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Grantville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Grantville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

MILITIA MEN BEST SHOTS.

Turned the Tables on the United States Army Cracks.

Camp Perry, O., Aug. 11.—The National Guard sharpshooters turned the tables on the United States service cracks. In the Ohio match for the adutant generals' $500 cup Private W. H. McCarthy, second corps cadet, of Massachusetts, shot up a field of 158, scoring 97 in 20 shots at 1,000 yards. Private Geo. W. Chesley, second Connecticut, tied McCarthy's total, but had four for the last shot. All but three of the twelve winners were militiamen. The $500 yard Dupont Tyro match was won by Sergeant J. Grebenza, fourth United States cavalry, who made a perfect score and nine additional bull's eyes, nineteen in all. Other leaders were Corporal C. T. Worsham U. S. marine corps, sixteen bulls; and Sergeant L. Jarrett, second Indiana, thirteen.

My Corns Don't Hurt a Bit

Tired, Aching, Swollen, Smelly, Sore
Feet, Corns, Calluses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right Off.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous, or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your first if you wish—no more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your feet. Doesn't that sound good to you? Doesn't it? Then read this.

"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. Today there is no sign of corns on either foot, and no soreness. It's an up-to-date Godsend."—Sam. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C.

Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principal of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

AT CAPITOL

GOV. WILLSON AWAY AND COX UNDER THE WEATHER.

State Treasurer Farley Is Coming Home to Address the Bankers.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—With Governor Willson out of the state and Acting Governor Cox under the weather, as a result of his recent attack of intermittent fever, and many of the state officials away, it is dull at the Capitol, and but little business is being transacted out of the usual routine.

Governor Cox had a long siege of fever, and is far from well now, although he is able to attend to business. He is thinner than usual and has not his usual strength. He is not well enough even to attend a baseball game, and as he is very fond of the sport that means that he is not a well man. Capt. Ed Farley, state treasurer, is going to his home in Paducah next week to deliver an address before the bankers of his congressional district. He is to be the principal speaker and probably will talk something of bank inspection as planned by Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Secretary of State. Captain Farley believes bank inspection would be a good thing, and thinks Dr. Bruner's plan is a good one.

Dr. Bruner went to Lawrenceburg today to attend a meeting of the bankers of Group Eight. He wants to meet every banker in the state if he can do so and find out what they think of bank inspection.

Thinks He's Exiled.

New York, Aug. 11.—Enoch Wishard, who has trained many horses for John A. Drake both in this country and in England, has just sold his residence at Sheephead Bay and intends to sail for France. Wishard says:

"They've killed racing here at last and I've got to leave my native land to follow my profession. I've been on the turf all my life and can do nothing else. France offers a chance and I shall embrace it. It's better to go there and have something to do than to remain here in idleness thinking of the prosperous past."

Paternal Goodness—"I can't understand," wrote the college boy, "why you call yourself a kind father. For three weeks I have had no check from you. Pray, what sort of kindness do you call that?" And the father wrote back: "Unremitting kindness."—August Lippincott's.

Rather Sultry.

The northern tourist found the old colored man sitting out in front of his cabin.

"Rather hot summer, eh, uncle?"

Interrogated the tourist affably.

"Hot summer sah?" echoed the old man as he mopped the beads from his brow.

"Why, de udder day mah old gray mule balked on de school house hill, and when Ah built a flah unde him et was so hot he nebber eben noticed it."—Chicago News.

Visitor—So your boy is in college, is he, Mr. Corstoum?
Farmer—I can't say exactly. He's in their ball nine, an' in their rowin' crew, an' in their jumpazeeum, an' in their dormitory, but whether he's ever in their college is more'n I kin find out by his letters—Harper's Bazaar.

Hoping for the best from a man in their dormitory, but whether he's helps him toward it.
